

Italy – Leather: Mastrotto Group sets up new logistics center

Mastrotto new logistics center

With an investment of €12 million the Italian tanning group, Mastrotto, has opened up a new logistics center in Arzignano. The center is called Gruppo Mastrotto Express and according to the company it is unique service in the tannery world due to its size and range of products.

"Gruppo Mastrotto Express came about because of a need to strengthen a niche that we have been occupying in the market for many years", stated company president Clara Mastrotto. "This is our answer to have more flexibility, provide better client service and offer a wide range of products to satisfy customer needs".

Clara Mastrotto - CEO of Mastrotto Group The new logistics services offer the possibility of choosing from more than 800 colors. There is a range of products for each sector – for example upholstery for cars and airplanes. The installations cover more than 4,300 square meters and the Mastrotto Group guarantees delivery to any part of the world within 48 hours.
